WELCOME TO FIS WORLD CUP RAW AIR 2021

Important information regarding Covid-19-protocol

Arrival

All teams, officials, suppliers and others are obligated to arrive in Norway at latest 3 days before the first official training:

Latest arrival in Oslo for SJ Men will be Tuesday 09.03.

Latest arrival in Oslo for SJ Ladies will be Wednesday 10.03.

All teams and officials have to use the OCs shuttle service from Oslo Airport Gardermoen to the arrival test and hotel in Oslo. Detailed information regarding flights, number of persons etc. must be reported to the OC through the FIS online system according to the deadlines in the invitation.

Cars arriving from abroad are obligated to drive directly to Oslo with no stops inside Norway except when it's absolutely necessary, ex for refuelling.

All persons entering Norway are obligated to register their entry through:

<https://reg.entrynorway.no/?lang=en>

All team members and officials have to update all necessary information in the FIS covid-19-passport according to FIS rules.

Test protocol

Persons arriving to Norway are required to present a SARS-CoV-2- test (PcR or Antigen) taken 24 hours prior to departure from the foreign destination.

All persons will be tested (PcR-test) on arrival in Oslo, and have to stay in their respective hotel room until the test result is known to be negative. After negative result of this test, everyone must undergo a “sports quarantine” for first 3 days.

New tests (Antigen) will be taken after 3, 6 and 9 days. A detailed plan and time schedule for testing will follow. Additional tests before departure will be offered.

All tests in Norway will be done by the NSF/LOC supplier Volvat Medical Center.

Sports quarantine

From the negative test result from the arrival test to the first official training, all athletes and other personnel arriving from abroad has to undergo a “sports quarantine”. This means:

- Athletes can do individual training outside without contact with others
- Training in the jumping hill can be done with a limited number of athletes at the venue at the same time. Training times will be assigned from the OC
- Indoor training is currently under discussion with the Norwegian Health Authorities. Information will be forwarded as soon as possible.
- Transportation to training has to be agreed with the OC
- Service personnel are allowed to work in closed service cabins without contact with locals
- Meals at the hotel will be organised and nations will be divided. Detailed plan/schedule from the OC will follow
- For the rest of the time everyone has to stay in their hotel room, without contact with other athletes, team members, locals or others

After day 3 you are allowed to take part in official trainings and competitions. You are still in quarantine during your spare time, and have to avoid contact with locals, and can't visit shops, restaurants, city centre etc.

After day 10 you are free from quarantine.

Accreditation will be issued after a negative result from the first test.

Accommodation

All teams and staff have to follow the OC accommodation system. No possibilities to stay outside of OC accommodation.

Due to our Covid-19 protocol, we are only allowed to accommodate guests in single-rooms. Please make sure to only make single-room entries through the FIS online-entry registration.

Costs

Additional costs for single rooms and extra nights because of the “sports quarantine” for persons within quota will be covered by the OC.

Costs for SARS-CoV-2-tests in Norway has to be covered by the respective ski federation. Prizes; Euro 100 for PCR-test and Euro 50 for Antigen test

Other

Face masks must be used by all persons both outside and inside, except during training and competitions.

Transport and luggage

Raw Air Tournament will handle the transport for all Teams according to Covid-19 restrictions.

Each team will be assigned to a specific bus and have to sit on the same bus the whole tournament.

To avoid crowded departure and arrival from/to the hotels a detailed time schedule for transport will follow.

Everyone has to handle their own personal luggage. The bus driver will help with loading and unloading the luggage according to Covid-19 restrictions.

Additional information regarding the covid-19-measures will follow.
